DIAGNOS announces major growth initiative in Latin America

Brossard, Quebec, Canada – February 4th, 2010 – DIAGNOS inc. (“DIAGNOS” or “the Corporation”) (TSX Venture: ADK), a leader in the use of artificial intelligence and advanced knowledge extraction techniques, announces today that it has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), and associated Non-Disclosure Agreement with OFTALMOLASER DE MEXICO S.A. DE C.V. (Oftalmolaser), the medical subsidiary of GRUPO DEVLYN, S.A. De C.V. (Devlyn). Devlyn is the largest optical chain in Latin America with over 700 optical outlets and 7 ophthalmic clinics.

Under the terms of the MoU, DIAGNOS and Oftalmolaser will work together to implement DIAGNOS’ Computer Assisted Retinal Analysis (CARA) technology in Oftalmolaser medical clinics and Devlyn optical outlets. The service will include automated image processing (enhancement and analysis), as well as professional grading, for a cost of $15 per exam.

“Grupo Devlyn’s leadership in providing ophthalmology services and their commitment to community service, including screening and blindness prevention, make them an ideal partner for DIAGNOS. We look forward to growing the delivery of ophthalmology services in Latin America with Grupo Devlyn” said Peter Nowacki, DIAGNOS’ Vice-President - Healthcare.

“Given our commitment as a family and as a business to the health of our communities, we hope to use DIAGNOS’ technology to support our screening for eye diseases at our chain of optical stores, increase the rate and quality of referrals for treatment in our medical clinics, and ultimately to make a difference in the vision care of 15 million Mexicans with diabetes, 50% of whom are undiagnosed” said Andrew Devlyn, Grupo Devlyn’s Medical Division Director.
