Mathieu Bois is back from the Olympic Games with rock solid experience

Brossard, Quebec, Canada – September 25, 2008 - DIAGNOS inc. (“DIAGNOS” or the “Corporation”) (TSX VENTURE: ADK), a leader in the use of artificial intelligence (“AI”) and advanced knowledge extraction techniques, is proud to announced that Mathieu Bois who has participated to the Beijing Olympic Games this summer is back home.

At the Olympic Games, in the 100 meters breaststroke, Mathieu registered the 26th time with a personal best of 1:01,45 and lowering his own provincial record.

Twenty year-old Mathieu Bois is part of the Senior National Team and is one of Canada’s top breaststrokers. He is also carving himself a place among the world’s best breaststrokers.

For this important competition, Mathieu was lucky enough to have the support of his family in Beijing.

Ms Lachapelle, manager – Administration at DIAGNOS, is proud of her son and thanks DIAGNOS for helping make the trip possible.

« It was the trip of my life. » declared Bois. « For London 2012, the countdown is started. For sure, during the next year, my goal is to get to the finals at the FINA Worlds that will take place next July. »
